Minister Rockhill Guest of Honor at Chinese Dinner

Pekin, June 10.—William W. Rockhill, the retiring American minister, was the guest of honor to-day at a dinner given by the Wai Wu Pu at which the heads of the several embassies were present. The honor conferred on Mr. Rockhill is unusual and is interpreted as an expression of China's desire for the closest relationship with America.

Fearful Havoc by Malay Earthquake

(Special from United Press.)
The Hague, June 10.—The government is fearful to-day that there has been enormous loss of life in Upper Padang and other islands of the Malay Archipelago as a result of last Thursday's earthquake and tidal wave. Yacht dispatch from Sumatra says that at least 250 had been killed in Upper Padang, but private messages received to-day indicate that the loss there was trifling compared with the havoc wrought in other islands of the group.

Huge Sugar Refinery To Resume Operations

Philadelphia, June 10.—The huge refinery of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining company in Shackamaxon street, which has been idle since the trust obtained control of the company through loans to its officers, will resume operations as soon as the agreement reached in New York yesterday between the Pennsylvania Company and the trust is ratified by the Pennsylvania courts. This statement was made today by Receiver George H. Earl, receiver for the company, who brought the suit against the trust in New York.

JUDGE GAYNOR RAPS OFFICIALS

New York, June 10.—Judge William J. Gaynor, addressing five thousand residents of South Brooklyn at Prospect Hall last evening, declared that the people of New York city must not repeat with future subway the so-called folly of which, he said, they were guilty when they turned the present system, over to August Belmont for seventy-five years. The meeting was one of four called in Brooklyn to consider subway development. Criticizing Controller Metz and the other city officials for pursuing a policy of obstruction, he said that there is no valid reason why many miles of subways could not have been constructed every year during the two terms of Mayor McClellan. He declared that it is time for the people of the city to elect men sufficiently high minded to put an end to the throttling of taxpayers by the traction trust, which, he said, intends to keep the situation in its control at every cost.

NEWTOWN.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Curtis have enjoyed a visit at Hartford making the trip by Automobile. Mrs. Julia Hawley also accompanied them. Charles Wheeler who has been the guest of Mrs. Lucy Beers and Mrs. George F. Duncombe for two weeks has returned to Long Branch. The following members of Pootatuck Grange attended the meeting of Pootatuck Grange at Bethel Wednesday night, June 9: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mitchell, Mrs. Walter Glover, Mrs. William B. Glover. Merchant Harry Ruff is having 120 feet of sidewalk laid by Derby Street. Herman H. Peck has carted gravel for the same. It is expected that other property owners will follow suit in the resurfacing of sidewalks which fact will be very much appreciated by the general public.

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed at the meeting of Pootatuck Grange Tuesday, a large audience was present. The program was opened with piano solo by Miss Corlette LeGrand after which the lecturer Allison P. Smith introduced the two speakers of the evening, Gen. H. O. Averill, State Comptroller, and Hon. H. W. Potter, State Dairy Commissioner. The subject of Gen. Averill's remarks was in part Tuberculosis in Cattle and Connecticut as a dumping ground for diseased cattle. Diagnosis of the disease, etc., and many other interesting points. Many questions were answered. A code in the dog laws was also referred to. A violin solo by Mrs. James W. Gordon, seated in the gap where Hon. O. Potter followed with a few words of interest to all. Mr. Potter also touched on the new brand of law explaining many items. Oleomargarine came for its share of discussion as well as the use of preservatives in foods either natural or otherwise. Anyone hearing the remarks from a person of experience in regard to canning factories, etc., would not care to use (if any) but the best brand of those grown. Many questions were again asked by different members of the company, after which Mrs. John J. Northrop delighted the audience with a humorous reading which concluded a very entertaining program. Refreshments of Ice Cream and Cake were served. The Button factory of P. P. Crowe at Botsford began work again Wednesday, after having been shut down some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Horan and children and Miss Elizabeth Corbett of Bridgeport spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Corbett of Botsford.

GUINEA HEN LAYS TWO EGGS DAILY

Redding Ridge Fowl Astonishes Poultry Raisers for Miles Around.

Justice Refuses to Believe That Man Who Shot Neighbor in Haste Didn't Mean to Do It.

NEWSY NOTES OF REDDING

Redding, June 10.—A guinea hen belonging to Mrs. Charles Bradley of the Ridge is achieving local notoriety and making a bid for enduring fame by laying two eggs a day, not a double yolked egg in one envelope, mind you, but two separate, individual eggs. This has been going on for several weeks and the enterprising fowl shows no signs of weakening. She does not produce two eggs every day, but never fails of a single, and the days when she does not make a double score are exceptions. Her performance is without a parallel at least in this part of the country, and if she keeps on she is likely to some day find herself the subject of a write-up and illustrations filling a whole page of one of the Sunday supplements.

Assault with intent to kill was the charge on which James Smith, who shot Benjamin Godfrey of the Ridge on the night of May 29, was arraigned before Justice Gilbert in Bethel on Tuesday. The accused admitted that he did the shooting with an abruptness lacking all preliminaries as described in these columns last week, but claimed that it was done by mistake and not by design. He heard Godfrey scrambling up the bank in front of his house shortly after midnight and thinking the intruder had come to one of his unlawful designs, took the gun to the door with him by way of precaution, and aimed it at the figure he saw in the darkness. The man was Godfrey who in the movement was accidentally discharged from his thumb catching the trigger. Other evidence showed that at the time Smith was standing on a higher level than Godfrey, a circumstance which in view of the fact that the charge was the latter's shoulder, tended to discredit the defendant's story. Justice Gilbert declared his disbelief in the story that the shooting was unintentional and bound the accused over to the Superior court for trial in the sum of $500.

The required bond was furnished by William Smith, brother of the defendant. Godfrey's condition has changed for the worse in the last few days and is now serious, as blood poisoning has set in from the wound in the hand which the shot mangled. The marriage of Harry Greenbaum of the local firm of Greenbaum & Klein, to Miss Ethel Klein was solemnized next Tuesday at the Cherry street synagogue in Bridgeport. The bride-to-be is sister of Mr. Greenbaum's painter and daughter of Joseph Klein of Bridgeport. The wedding festivities will include a reception at Germania hall and also a reception at the residence of the bride. The many Redding friends of the groom-elect and his partner will extend their best wishes to the young couple who are to take up their abode here after a trip of about ten days which will have Niagara Falls for one of its objective points. The end came suddenly although he had been feeling to the house for several weeks from heart weakness. The deceased was a prominent and well known citizen, having lived in the Ridge suburb since his arrival from Ireland in his young manhood. With a good physique and a disposition to industry and thrift as his own capital he gradually gained his competence. Two years ago he and his wife, who survives him, celebrated their golden wedding. They had three surviving children, John and James P. Sullivan, and Mrs. John H. Colgan of Bridgeport. The funeral will be on Tuesday with a high mass in requiem at the Catholic church in Bethel, and was very largely attended. Rev. Father Kierstead made a brandy address in which he referred to the lifelong piety of the deceased, mentioning as instances his journeying to Bridgeport in his young days to attend school and his gift of the site for the Catholic church on the Ridge. The pall bearers were William Fisher, Theodore Braunnies, Thomas Conway, Thomas Healon, H. C. McCollam and Michael Crowe.

The appraisers on the estate of the late John Todd will probably not submit their inventory report until about July 1. One cause for the delay is the widely distributed nature of the assets, including including a brandy deposit in various parts of the State. Towards the close of his life Mr. Todd sold most of his real estate, his home and land in the Ridge and a fine of land in the State. It appears that the money thus obtained was placed in savings banks or loaned on mortgage or other safely secured notes. No investments were made of him in corporation stocks or bonds. The interview obtained last week by the Evening Farmer of a brandy and Highway Commissioner Macdonald in relation to State road matters here, was quite satisfactory. The commissioner proposed to prepare plans and specifications for completing the road across the Ridge so that bids could be advertised for within a few days.

FAULTLESS PRESCRIPTION

No Remedy for Stomach Distress and Indigestion so Perfect

A scientific prescription for dyspepsia, sour stomach, belching, flatulence, distress after eating, heartburn, biliousness and nervousness. It is well worth a trial by any reader of the Evening Farmer who suffers from any stomach disturbance. It contains ingredients that not only give relief but that act on the stomach so beneficially that in a short time the sufferer regains his strength and activity and can perfectly digest any kind of food without aid.

Try Mi-o-na for a week; misery will change to happiness; despair to hope, dull eyes to bright and you will wonder why you suffered so long with such a remarkable prescription at hand. And only 50 cents for a large box at all druggists and at druggists everywhere.

MI-O-NA

Cures catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including inhaler $1. Extra bottles 50c. Druggists.

few days. The other matter laid before him was Commodore Lutgen's proposition to build a permanent road to the town to contribute $1,000 on condition the expense. Mr. Macdonald thought well of the plan and will consent to the effort to make of the last State appropriation due the town in fulfillment of the project.

First Selectman Banks conveyed to the Danbury hospital last Thursday evening a man who had been lying during the day at the roadside near Putnam Park. The stranger was known as Philip Fagan and said he had lately been an inmate of the Bridgeport almshouse. He lacked an arm which he said he lost years ago in a railroad accident, and was in a high fever.

John Gilbert and Robert White, employees of Butler Senior of Bethel, were thrown out and severely bruised last Friday by the overturn of their wagon on Ryan's Hill near Pleasant Valley. Their injuries are not serious, but the displacement of a hold-back strap on their wagon shaft.

Dr. Anna M. Read is at a sanitarium in Newark, N. J., undergoing specialist treatment for rheumatism.

In a ten inning game on the Ridge last Saturday, the Bethel High School defeated the Sanford by a score of 13 to 11.

A dance was given at the Ridge hall Monday evening under the direction of a committee headed by Mrs. Randolph Bradley. The company included guests from Easton, Monroe, Newtown and other outside localities.

Thomas H. Clark has erected in the Bethel Catholic cemetery a massive family monument furnished by Thomas Corcoran of Canaan.

One of the events marking the close of the term of the school will be a reception and dance to occur at the gymnasium tomorrow (Friday) evening.

Dog Agent Warner is on the hunt for dog owners who have been delinquent in the matter of taking out licenses. He found several cases in the Ridge section and the widest possible scope for the exercise of his appointive power is necessary both to promote the largest measures of efficiency and to lay most certainly responsibility where it should rest. In my opinion this policy is correct without question, and it is also my opinion that the said bill is inconsistent therewith.

WIFE MUST TAKE HOME WHERESOEVER HUSBAND PROVIDES

Judge H. J. Curtis so Rules in Allowing H. N. Worth Decree of Absolute Divorce.

A surprise was sprung in the contested divorce case of Herbert vs. G. Worth of New York, heard yesterday in the civil Superior court by Judge Howard J. Curtis, when the case came to a sudden end. The court allowed the decree for the plaintiff on the ground of desertion. As stated in this paper yesterday the plaintiff's wife had broken up of his home followed the advent of his mother-in-law into the family. The husband told the wife that she would have to make her own choice, and see for herself if it would be more satisfactory to you and us. You will find just what you want, fish and sweet. Soft shell crabs, fresh mackerel, blue fish, cod, salmon, flat fish, frog's legs, lobsters, clams, &c. Vegetables, meats, poultry, power, I believe the locality and not the state should draw the line. I am therefore of the opinion that this bill ought not to pass, and I return it to you without my approval.

Bluefish and fresh mackerel now reign supreme. Among the others that are coming in are: Striped bass, Spanish mackerel, sea bass, Kennebec River salmon, chicken white halibut, Long Island eels, sea trout, butterfish, porgees, steak cod, yellowfin, haddock, live and boiled lobsters, long and round clams, open or in the shell. Live spring broilers killed and dressed to order. Send in your order early and have a prompt delivery. Time for dinner. Call up Garry's Fish Market, corner Wall and Middle streets. Tel. 583.

Severest Sentence For Auto Speeder

New York, June 10.—Frank H. Dearborn of 65 Central Park West, a demonstrator for the E. R. Thomas Motor Company, got yesterday the severest sentence that the Court of Special Sessions has imposed for automobile speeding. The sentence, which was five days in the city prison and a fine of $100 or an additional five days, was upon the fifth conviction.

Dearborn was arrested by Policeman John T. Shields on May 25, driving an automobile on Fifth avenue from Eleventh to Ninth street at the rate of nineteen miles an hour. In another $50 and in the others sentence had been suspended. No one was in court yesterday to pay the fine and Dearborn went to the Tombs with the prospect of staying ten days.

Merely an Oversight Says Mark Twain

Baltimore, June 10.—Mark Twain arrived in Baltimore late yesterday afternoon and went to the Belvedere, where he denied himself to all newspaper men. Shortly before midnight, however, in answer to a note sent to his room, asking if he had any reply to make to the complaint that he had incorporated in his latest book, "The Shakespearian Problem," a chapter from volume called "The Shakespeare Problem Restated," written by George P. Greenwood, without giving credit. Mr. Clemens wrote the following:

"It was merely an oversight in not giving the proper credit." Mr. Clemens goes today to Saint Timothy's School for Girls at Canaanville to make an address to the graduates.

GOVERNOR WEEKS' FIRST VETO RECEIVED IN HOUSE YESTERDAY

Reason Why New-Haven Police Commission Bill is a Bad One.

The veto message sent by Governor Frank B. Weeks to the House yesterday, accompanying the bill prohibiting any tobaccoist from serving upon the New Haven board of police commissioners, is as follows:

To the Honorable General Assembly: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the bill for the purpose of self-government, which by the charter of the city of New Haven already prohibits police commissioners from engaging in certain other occupations during the term of their office.

The actual effect of this bill is to prevent one engaged in a lawful occupation from holding the office of police commissioner. That the charter of the city of New Haven already prohibits police commissioners from engaging in certain other occupations during the term of their office is a salutary principle of our form of government that each locality shall have to the highest degree the right of self-government, limited only by considerations of general welfare. For many years Connecticut's policy towards her cities has been to grant a restricted number of elective offices and to charge the incumbents with the duty of approaching minor officials. Except where special training is essential the widest possible scope for the exercise of this appointive power is necessary both to promote the largest measures of efficiency and to lay most certainly responsibility where it should rest. In my opinion this policy is correct without question, and it is also my opinion that the said bill is inconsistent therewith.

I am therefore of the opinion that this bill ought not to pass, and I return it to you without my approval.

Deaths and Funerals

The body of George Goudreau, who was killed on Tuesday evening by falling in a train in Clinton arrived in this city last evening and was taken in charge by Funeral Directors Bourke & Bourke. The young man was about 25 years of age, the son of John Goudreau, of 47 Harriet street. In company with his uncle, Alex Goudreau he had taken a train from this city Tuesday afternoon expecting to go to Maine where employment had been offered them. The unfortunate young man fell off the moving train at Clinton receiving injuries from which he died Tuesday evening.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Col. John G. Healy of the Ninth Regiment, C. V., were held yesterday morning in New Haven. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in that city. Many veterans of the Civil War were in attendance. The services were held in St. Mary's church, which edifice was thronged to its capacity. Among the honorary pall bearers were representatives from the staff of the late Gov. Morris on which the deceased served; and the Knights of Columbus, Friendly Sons of St. Patrick of New Haven, Admiral Foote Post, the Second Company of the Foot Guards; and the veterans from the Ninth Regiment among the latter being Col. Richard Fitzgibbons of this city.
